See Ya CFLs:

Recycle used CFLs at your local Home Depot, IKEA or check Earth911.org for drop-off locations in your zip code. If your state permits you to put used or broken CFLs in the garbage, seal the bulb in two plastic bags and put it in the outside trash. Don't incinerate, as CFLs contain a small amount of toxic mercury, an average of about 5 milligrams, which would get released into the air.

DoshaCare Skincare Line

Rate it now:  Average rating: *****

Why It's Good:

A skin care line that functions on the principles of the age-old Ayurvedic Indian healing system, DoshaCare provides a daily face-cleansing regimen customized according to your primary Dosha (also known as your physical and emotional constitutions - don't worry, there's a quiz.)

Why It's Green:

All of the products in this skincare line are free of synthetic colors and scents, and made from 98% botanical ingredients, most of which are wild crafted or organically grown without toxic chemical treatments. Even the tubes are made from 70% recycled materials.

Where To Get It:

www.doshacare.com | $34 - $54
